In the matter of the last will and } In Probate Court Testament of Mary Connor deceased. } Monday June 21st 1886.
 Be it remembered, heretofore to wit, on the 11th day of March 1886 an instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Mary Connor was filed ^{and} on the 5th day of June 1886, application was made to have the same admitted to Probate, and Record in this Court - and it now being shown to the satisfaction of the Court, that due notice of the filing of said will and the application to admit the same to Probate and record in this Court, has been duly given to all the heirs and next of kin of the Testator, resident of the State of Ohio, pursuant to a former order of this Court, thereupon on this day came J. D. Tamm and Daniel Seelimon, the subscribing witnesses to said will whom being first duly sworn testified to the due execution and attestation of said will, which testimony was reduced to writing and by them respectively subscribed, and filed with said will, whereupon the Court finds that the aforesaid instrument of writing, is the last will and Testament of said Mary Connor deceased, that the same was duly executed and attested and the said testator, at the time of making signing, and sealing said will, was of full age of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint. It is therefore by the Court ordered, that the said will be admitted to Probate, and that the same, together with the testimony of the witnesses above named as well as the proceedings had thereon, be entered in this Court Frederick Klipp Probate Judge
